16 Weeks to Good Academic Standing

| Week 1 | ✓ Clarify your schedule with your academic advisor.
✓ Review each course syllabus and outline major due dates. |
|--------|---------------------------------------------------|
| Week 2 | ✓ Introduce yourself to each faculty member you have this semester.
✓ Submit all Grade replacement forms before the deadline in the Office of the Registrar (King 141). |
| Week 3 | ✓ Attend a workshop to strengthen your study and time management skills at the University Center for Academic Excellence. |
| Week 4 | ✓ Visit the Writing Resources Center for help with first drafts of papers due this semester.
✓ Attend SI sessions or get a tutor for challenging courses. |
| Week 5 | ✓ Boost your test taking skills by studying for exams early and often.
✓ Stay motivated and set aside time to connect with the people or issues that matter most to you. |
| Week 6 | ✓ Schedule your Pre-registration Advising Appointment with your academic advisor now! |
| Week 7 | ✓ Check in with all faculty members to be sure you are on track for success this semester. Use GPA Calculator to see where you stand.
✓ Be sure to get a good night’s sleep before your midterm exams! |
| Week 8 | ✓ Visit the Career Center to explore majors and career options, or inquire about Summer opportunities. |
| Week 9 | ✓ Review your Banner account for any unsatisfactory grade reports.
✓ Deadline to withdraw from any course while retaining others is usually approaching, keep an eye out for the exact date. |
| Week 10 | ✓ Meet with your academic advisor to select the classes that you will take next and to tap into any extra resources to help make the most of this semester. |
| Week 11 | ✓ Double check your registration time, make sure all holds have been removed from your account, and know which course sections you want to register for! |
| Week 12 | ✓ Review your syllabi and outline your strategy for finishing the semester strong. |
| Week 13 | ✓ Deadline to withdraw from all your courses for the semester is usually approaching, keep an eye out for the exact date.
✓ Beware of end-of-semester drops in motivation and be sure to continue to attend all of your classes. |
| Week 14 | ✓ Find out when each of your final exams will be and start making a study schedule
✓ Check in with your professors as you begin preparing for finals. |
| Week 15 | ✓ Find a friend or study partner who will help you keep your focus while studying for Final Exams.
✓ Attend all review sessions offered for your classes. |
| Week 16 | ✓ Stick to your study schedule in order to do well on finals. Be prepared to show everyone how much all of your hard work has paid off! |